

Custom Logo's

LOGO'S

Custom logos may be something that is not even considered for duct work but with fabric air systems you have that option. The possibility of adding extra color or a logo to a room can customize the application even further. Many schools, car dealerships, and businesses have done this and have loved the outcome. Of course there is an added cost, but even with this, the entire system will still be less than a regular looking sheet metal.

